Graduate Certificate: Spirituality

This graduate certificate is for students seeking to grow in an understanding of spirituality as a way of life that intentionally integrates behavior and belief while honoring one’s personal search for meaning. Students select their six courses (18 credits) in keeping with a program of study that will meet these objectives and in consultation with their faculty advisor.

Note: Up to 6 credits of the Women’s Leadership Institute may be applied toward the 18 credits of this graduate certificate.
